From Brother Mike. . .

Mike Farmer, Director of Missions

How good it was to gather again as a community of believers for the revival services earlier in March. These times are always good reminders that it is not just about my church, but it is about the Kingdom of God. Thanks to Athens First Baptist Church for hosting the event and for all the people who made it happen. I also appreciate all the churches who participated and attended during the week. You have to feel like it was worth it when someone asked me the day after it ended when we are doing it again.

I want to take this opportunity to say Thank You!! to Scott Duckworth. For most of the time I have been DOM Scott has been a great help in Christian Builders and Disaster Relief. Scott is stepping down as the Coordinator for Christian Builders. His ministry as Fire Chaplain for McMinn County has stretched him a little too much. Allan Gentry is taking over in the Christian Builders leadership. I look forward to seeing this group continue to do great work. Pray for them as they average building around 35 ramps a year. They would also welcome any others who would like to be a part of the group. If you are interested, please contact the Association office for more details. There are a lot of activities on the horizon. VBS preparations are starting soon. Plans for mission trips and summer events are in the works. Before all of that gets here let me give all of us a reminder. Being an obedient Christian is not about being busy. It is about listening to God and following Him where He leads. Sometimes the best preparation is to be quiet, listen and wait until we know we have heard God speak. Then it is time to get busy.

Plant a lot of seeds this Spring!

Blessings,
