From Brother Mike. . .

Mike Farmer, Director of Missions

VBS! Vacation Bible School. It is hard to believe it is VBS time. This year is moving along rapidly. I hope you are making preparations for some form of VBS in your church this summer. It is the most evangelistic activity most churches will do this year. While many of the numbers in our Convention’s annual report were down, baptisms were up last year. I pray that Vacation Bible School in McMinn-Meigs Association will bring about many baptisms later this year.

I want to say Thank You to Joe Delph. Joe has been our BCM director for the past few years. To any of the churches that provide the BCM meal on Thursdays it is not a surprise about the increase in attendance over the past few years. He has helped grow the crowd on Thursdays and we should be grateful for the presence we have on the TWU campus. Pray for us as we fill this position.

If anyone is interested in more information about the Campus Minister position for Baptist Collegiate Ministries at TWU, please contact the Association office as soon as possible.

Finally, pray for the Southern Baptist Convention which will be meeting in Dallas June 10-11. As usual, there is a lot of discussion about items which may come up for consideration at the meeting. We live in a day where many are singularly focused and just want their way. One hundred years ago, the Cooperative Program was born. It has served us well as a missions support methodology. I pray we can all keep our eyes on the mission for which we all serve.

You may keep up with the annual meeting news and watch the proceedings when it is happening at sbcannualmeeting.net.

Blessings,
