What is God doing? That is a question I ask myself as I read the reports from Asbury University. The first report of something happening caught my attention because the campus minister who lead Baptist Student ministry where I went to college was directly affected by the revival of 1970 that began at the same school. A small group has been praying together for revival for several years. I know others around are praying for revival as well. I pray this is something that keeps growing through our nation. I also pray that we can see this during our upcoming Association revival. All churches are encouraged to come be a part of our first Association Revival this year. We are planning on having some others during the year in different locations. On March 19-22 we will meet at Athens First Baptist Church. Sunday evening service will be at 6:00 p.m. Weeknight services will start at 7:00 p.m. We are planning on having an association choir sing in each service. Choir practice will start one hour before the service time. Those scheduled to preach for the week are:

Bo Dunkle, Clearwater, Sunday evening
Stan Hammonds, Mt. Harmony, Niota, Monday
David Lones, Goodsprings, Tuesday
Todd Humbert, Greenhouse, Wednesday

March also means Easter is not far away. May every day leading up to this great day be a reminder to us that Jesus died and is alive. Let us celebrate and share the Good News!

Blessings,
